

Rochester Staff Impression

Rochester is a very handsome young man with beautiful blue eyes and thick, wavy blonde hair that is always styled. Rochester is tall standing at 6'3" with a lean muscular build, which is result of constant activities such as sports or weight training. He has a light skin tone, clear complexion and keeps a clean-shaven face. Rochester has full lips and a great smile that is always on display.

Rochester is most definitely a people person; he has an outgoing personality and loves getting out of his comfort zone. He is a bit of a social butterfly and enjoys hanging out with friends or watching sports/movies. Rochester is currently a student and is focused on his academics. His long-term goal is to host or anchor a well-known series. He hopes to use his platform to do good in the world. Family is very important to Rochester, he keeps very close relationships with his parents and siblings. He grew up learning the value of being responsible and kind. Rochester makes a great addition to our donor program.
