

The best way to describe Marlon is classically handsome with a charming personality. He is clean-cut with thick, wavy hair, gorgeous tan skin, strong brows, and a full-lipped smile that frames straight, white teeth. Long limbs, broad shoulders, and a muscular build make Marlon look like a natural athlete; he was an All-American Rugby player for two seasons who also participated in many other team and individual sports. The cold days of winter don't slow him down as he looks forward to heading up to the mountains for his favorite pastime, skiing.

Marlon is a warm, loyal, and humorous guy who greatly values spending quality time with his family and loved ones. He is happy to be making his family proud while he pursues his goal of completing business school. His strong work ethic, optimism, and generosity make Marlon a fantastic guy!
