

Garfield is a tall, handsome donor with dark brown hair and large blue eyes. His face is rectangular with high cheekbones, an angular jaw line covered with a groomed beard. Garfield has a medium skin tone with a few freckles and fantastic smile to top it off. He stays in shape by running 3-4 times a week and is an avid rock climber.

Garfield is kind, confident, outgoing, and socially aware with lots of charm and leadership skills. He has his master's in education and is currently a special education teacher. He is passionate about the work he does and loves to help others. Garfield is faithful to his religious beliefs and centers his morals and values around them. He is such a caring human who truly wants the best for everyone he encounters and will go out of his way to make sure people feel cared for and loved.