

Dwayne 10603

Dwayne is a kind, empathetic, and inquisitive guy. He is wise beyond his years and is a great listener while maintaining a personable attitude. He is tall, with thick, curly hair, brown eyes, and a nicely defined jaw line. Dwayne was previously a marine and is a trained mechanic but is looking forward to pursuing larger goals for himself. We admire his strength and perseverance and cannot wait to hear what is next for him in life.

In his free time, Dwayne loves to spend time being active in the gym, as well as hiking and rowing. He maintains healthy friendships and is compassionate to those around him. Dwayne joined our program to be able to help others create families of their own, and we are thankful to have him!
