

BFA0145 stands at 5'11 with a slim to medium build, square shaped face, beautiful dark brown hair, a beard and blue eyes. He makes every effort to engage with us often referring back to previous conversations – you can definitely say he is a good listener. He describes himself as empathetic, compassionate, and caring and we would agree.

BFA0145 is really easy going and relaxed. He is well travelled and has studied, worked and lived all over the world. He describes himself as fortunate to have volunteered in various schools and orphanages around Africa and India.

He is passionate about what he does and for life in general and is now dedicated to helping children with all manner of mental health related concerns.
