

With a slim athletic build BFA0178 stands at 6'. He has an oval shape face with a few freckles, a slim shaped nose and straight brown hair, and currently supports a beard. On first meeting he can come across as a little shy but this doesn't last long as he soon relaxes and is happy to engage in conversations with us.

He is easy-going, calm, light hearted and thoughtful with a "say it as you see it" manner. It may have something to do with him being a doctor perhaps.

Family is really important to BFA0178 and he has an extremely close bond with his parents and siblings and they regularly meet up. He states in his personal profile that "family is home to me rather than a geographic place".

BFA0178 is a wonderful person with so many achievements under his belt already, although he does set himself new goals and targets to achieve which we have no doubt he will as he does have a "go getting" attitude to life.
