

Thomas Staff Impression

Thomas is tall with broad shoulders, long limbs, and a slim, athletic, build. He is an active runner, skier, and mountain climber who feels right at home in the Pacific Northwest. Thomas's kind face is narrow and framed by dark hair that contrasts attractively with his fair skin and pale blue eyes. He has a tidy appearance, preferring to stay outfitted in professional attire and keeping his face clean-shaven.

Thomas is an ambitious leader and competitor who is outgoing, friendly, and optimistic in nature-- always visiting us with a smile and kind words. He is a skillful businessman who has found success with finance and investments. Thomas is a rare combination of both highly analytical and socially adept; we think this makes him a great choice as a well-rounded donor!
