

Wellington Staff Impression

Wellington has fair skin, dark hair and eyes and full lips. He is an athletic, muscular donor who enjoys running, weightlifting, and boxing which keeps him in great shape.

This donor is passionate about helping others and yearns to be a Fire Fighter, which he is currently training in the academy for. He has also studied nutrition and has a love for foods from other cultures. His mother is part Japanese and they took a trip to Japan when he was a child. The culture of food in Japan created a lifetime love of fresh and authentic Asian fare. He longs to travel the world, especially France since his father is French. He would love to see his family there and explore his roots.

Wellington has many appealing qualities that make him a superb donor. He loves his family and believes in living in an altruistic way. He loves camping and hiking; connecting him to nature and the little things that make life so beautiful. His easygoing and mellow personality is truly delightful, and everyone here loves when we have the opportunity to engage with him. He makes everyone's day a little brighter. With his award-winning smile and captivating laugh, you cannot go wrong with Wellington!
