

Pratt 10607

Pratt is a friendly and compassionate guy, with a lofty personality. He has piercing blue eyes with a green tint, and thick, brown hair. He also has a few freckles on his nose and cheeks that compliment his face nicely. We are always happy to see Pratt in our office, as we know he will brighten anyone's spirit who is having a bad day. Though he currently works in labor merchandising, his biggest role in life is raising his two children who he is most proud of.

Pratt has a curiosity to learn new things in everyday life, and we find his goal to publish a book in his lifetime very admirable. Pratt's sense of adventure has also contributed to his open mind, as he has traveled all over the world, including Ireland, Portugal, Spain, Thailand, and England. We recommend Pratt to any family who is looking for a well-rounded donor with a creative mind and a warm heart!
