

Standing at 6ft 3in BFA0203 with striking blue eyes, brown hair, and an medium build, he has a natural presence that reflects both strength and warmth. Fair-skinned with a light summer tan, he carries himself with quiet confidence and ease.

A lifelong curiosity about the world shapes much of who he is. His passions include archaeology, history, biology, wildlife, and the natural world — interests that have taken him travelling extensively. Sweden remains a particular favourite, captivated by what he describes as its “stunning history” and breathtaking landscapes.

Family is at the heart of his values. Deeply close to those he loves, he credits them with instilling in him the principles he lives by strength, trust, respect, and integrity. These traditional values guide both his personal and professional life.

Kind, compassionate, and quietly self-assured, he follows his own path rather than conforming to passing trends. He always makes time for meaningful conversation — whether sharing new recipes he has tried, speaking thoughtfully about his work, or talking about his partner with genuine tenderness. His calm demeanour and steady presence make him a pleasure to be around.

He is a wonderful balance of intelligence, creativity, and athleticism — someone whose character shines just as brightly as his accomplishments.
