

Ciaran 20055 Staff Impression

Ciaran has a strong, angular face with a defined jawline, a straight nose, and full lips framed by short facial hair. His brown-green eyes are a window into his thoughtful personality. Thick, straight black hair is styled neatly, often swept back to reveal a subtle widow's peak and a medium skin tone that tans easily to a warm glow, completing his ruggedly handsome look. At 5'10" and weighing around 160 pounds, Ciaran has an attractive medium, athletic build.

Ciaran is of Irish descent and holds a bachelor's degree in criminal justice. He excelled in analytical subjects such as geometry and statistics. An avid outdoorsman who aspires to stay strong and active well into his later years, he enjoys golf, mountain biking, hunting, fishing, camping, and reading classic literature. His personality is even-tempered, disciplined, and self-reliant. He values independence and logical thinking while maintaining a balanced approach to life. He donates because he believes his strong genetics are worth passing on and is genuinely happy to help others create the families they've always wanted.