Staff Assessment for BFA0219

BFA0219 is 180cm tall with blue eyes, blonde hair and fair skin. He has a Bachelor's degree in Applied Psychology and Criminology and has a wide range of interests.

Fitness and sport are an important part of his life. He attends the gym regularly, around three to four times a week, enjoys rowing and has a keen interest in Formula 1. He is also musical and enjoys playing the guitar. His love of travel has taken him across Southeast Asia, and he has a genuine enthusiasm for discovering new places and experiences.

In his interactions with us, he comes across as laid-back yet highly productive. He is naturally positive, motivated and creative, and is very often seen with a smile. He is kind and happy by nature and enjoys surrounding himself with like-minded people who share his interests and outlook.

When he visits, he has a gentle and calm presence. He is quietly confident and chatty without ever being loud or overbearing, making him very easy to engage with. We find him warm, humble and genuinely personable, and his calm manner creates a relaxed atmosphere around him.

Family is clearly very important to him, and he has a strong and close relationship with those around him. He is a family-orientated person who values connection and meaningful relationships.

Overall, he is a friendly, grounded and well-rounded individual. His combination of confidence, humility, creativity and positive outlook makes him a particularly engaging presence, and staff always enjoy spending time with him.
